Who we are

WHAT WE DO

We believe that travel is not a reward for working, but the most valuable and impactful form of education for life. We aren't just a travel company and we don't just create the opportunity for travellers to discover a new way of life; we practice what we preach. We've turned our lifestyle into a business that lets us share our passion for travel with the people who join us on our adventures.

WHERE WE GO

Having run tours in 18 countries all over the world, we pride ourselves in the work that we do and the ability to be able to share it with others.

TRAVEL TRENDS

We keep our pulse on the travel world and are constantly on the look out for the hottest new destinations to bring our expanding community of travellers to!

GROWTH IS ON THE HORIZON

Having hit the 10 year mark in 2017, we knew that was a massive accomplishment, and that if we want to continue we were going to need to renovate, innovate, and keep moving forward in new and exciting ways!

“Travel isn't always pretty. It isn't always comfortable. Sometimes it hurts, it even breaks your heart. But that's okay. The journey changes you; it should change you.”

-ANTHONY BOURDAIN

OUR World

“Have the understanding that you make your own choice to be happy no matter where you are in the world and who you are with; all you can do is embrace the situation and find a way to smile.”

“Probably one of my most awesome experiences

I’ve ever had. I had never wanted to travel in groups and with a company but I am so glad I did. Everyone involved in the company is amazing and Croatia was the most beautiful and probably one of the most fun places I’ve ever been.”

Messages from OUR TRAVELLERS

SAMUEL GARDNER

WHAT DOES LBW MEAN TO YOU?

Life before work means to me, the experience of creating life long friends on an adventure that I could not possibly create on my own! It is bringing together a group of like minded individuals to travel together for a week, to places they have never been before. It's a company that makes a family.

NICK CARRINGTON

WHAT DOES LBW MEAN TO YOU?

It means experiencing something that's out of the ordinary for what society may want you to do. See things and new places and grow as a person. Meet new likeminded people that want to just have the best trip of their lives. Lifelong friends in a welcoming family.

CHRISTOPHER MARGARIAN

WHAT DOES LBW MEAN TO YOU?

Developing new friends, family, and experiences. It's breaking out of your shell and doing things you would never think about doing at home. You can be who you want and see the world while making new friends and having the time of your life.

NICK COMPTON

WHAT DOES LBW MEAN TO YOU?

It means new beginnings. Seeing & feeling things that you thought only photoshop could make happen, but LBW makes those things a reality. Meeting new people from across the globe, people that you didn't think could ever exist. It opens a compartment in your brain that makes your way of thinking veer off in such a positive way, it's life changing. In other words you need to see it to believe it & let LBW create a reality that really shows "Life Outside of Work"

BRIANNA LAWLER

HAS LBW IMPACTED YOUR LIFE?

Going on tours with LBW makes me feel alive again. When I'm at home doing the same thing everyday I forget how much more there is to see, learn, and experience out in the world but when I go on an LBW tour I feel like I'm actually living my life instead of wasting it away. LBW helps brings people together who I never would have met and they continue to remind us that we are part of the LBW family even after the tour is over. I can't remember my life without all the new friends I've made because they have made an impact on the person I am today. I am not the same person I was before doing each LBW tour.

“Dare to live the life you’ve always wanted.”

KAYLA WOOD

HAS LBW IMPACTED YOUR LIFE?

Becoming part of the LBDub family changed me in such an amazing way, I became more confident and comfortable with who I am. Having the understanding that you make your own choice to be happy no matter where you are in the world and who you are with, all you can do is embrace the situation and always find a way to smile. Life is way too short to forget to be grateful and show love to everyone you meet because ultimately it's the connections you make with people you meet when you travel that will last a life time. You can always find the good if you remember to look!

CALLIE BRITTLE

WHAT DOES LBW MEAN TO YOU?

As I'm currently sitting in the airport leaving my second trip in the last 6 months this answer is easy. LBW means opportunity. Opportunity to see some of the most beautiful places in the world, opportunity to meet like-minded people who quickly become family, opportunity to explore yourself as an individual, and opportunity to show others back home how great travel can be for you. Life Before Work has so much more to offer than a nice view and you won't know unless you experience a trip firsthand.

WILLIAM MURRAY

WHAT DOES LBW MEAN TO YOU?

LBW means taking the time out of the rat race to get outside your comfort zone to meet and appreciate new friends, cultures, and the beauty of the amazing world we live in. Never did I expect to share an amazing 10 days with a bunch of Aussies, Kiwis, Canadians, or Brits. Every person that you meet gives you a new perspective on life!

LINDSAY WARNER

WHAT DOES LBW MEAN TO YOU?

Life Before Work is a really great company which provides the amazing opportunity to explore this giant world and through that, to explore oneself. Travel teaches you so much about the world, who you are, and what you want in life. I love the fact that LBW targets young adults—we're all in a really confusing stage of life where we're still discovering who we are. To be able to explore this with others who are in the same boat is so rewarding. On a less serious note, LBW provides a chance to take a break from work or school and to switch things up. LBW helped me to try so many new things, and allowed me to return to my life feeling refreshed and with a warmth for this world and for this life."and by travelling on my own helped my social skills massively - this has helped me in so many ways in all aspects of life—especially my career.
